

Parental SEND Concern

For parents who are concerned that their child has a SEND need

Parent Concern

Concerns about progress, behavior, attention, communication or regulation relating to SEND

Parent SEND Concern Form

Parents complete the SEND concern form; identifying concerns they have, strategies they have tried, what has worked/ hasn't worked, or any other support they have received so far.

The date of the form received will be noted and a confirmation email sent to parents.

SENDCo Review

SENDCo Parent Response Information: SENDCo collates information from concerns form, data check, observations, discussion with teacher

SENDCo Parental Feedback

Parents meeting with the SENDCo

SENDCo Feedback & Decision

Decision where the child should be placed within the Internal Support System

The process will take approximately 6 weeks